AMERICA'S LONGEST RUNNING TOURING COMPANY

Romeo & Juliet

Love can be a thrilling ride—it bursts the seams of young hearts, making them feel things never felt before . . . But it can also be a dangerous thing—it can split you open and send you past the point of no return. This year, America's longest running classical touring company brings you Shakespeare's most enduring tale, re-imagined, re-invigorated, and irresistibly visceral.

Animal Farm

Revolution has broken out on Manor Farm— the animals have claimed their independence! Humans are banished, and the new "Animal Farm" will be a beautiful egalitarian paradise. Pigs, horses, goats, donkeys and dogs—all animals are equal. They can build their new utopia, but can they resist the corruption that led to the humans' downfall? From the author of 1984, this chilling and provocative fable is brought to the stage with the focused clarity and spark you've come to expect from The National Players.
